

3. Describe at least one weakness of the tool.

4. How is this product supposed to decrease the chances your identity might be exposed if you were trying to (a) interact anonymously online, (b) avoid tracking by marketers, or (c) both?

5. What are some circumstances where you might be identified anyway?

Bonus Assignment

Try the tool for yourself for a week. Now what do you think?

1. What is this tool's main strength, for you?

2. What is its main weakness, for you?

3. Do you think you will continue using it? Why or why not?