

You Can't Escape Review Questions

1. If you try to delete all of your online accounts and abstain from any online activities, is this effective for maintaining online privacy? Why or why not?

2. List two examples of offline activities that could affect your information footprint.

3. Give an example of private information that could be inferred or guessed from data collected from your offline activities.

4. How could your friends and family possibly be a threat to your online privacy? Give an example.

5. Give two examples of how you could try to reduce the amount of information other individuals and companies/services share about you.

